

PERSONAL BIO

Dexter is the Owner and Chief Executive Protection Officer of VIPS Personal Protection, LLC. He is a United States Marine Corps Veteran with an honorable discharge and served during the Persian Gulf War Era.

Dexter retired from the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission as the Chief of Audit & Investigations in 2021 with 26 years of combined regulatory and law enforcement service credit. One of his most significant contributions to the Commission was developing and implementing a Special Investigations Unit.

Its primary purpose was to disrupt and dismantle organized crime that had a nexus to the alcoholic beverage industry by means of covert investigation techniques. This work is recognized for its achievements by members of the Texas House of Representatives and Senate.
